

Iceland Stage for Legends

Behold the midnight sun or northern lights amidst geological wonders rich with Scandinavian history.

highlights

Shape-Shifting Landscapes Gaze upon the dramatic spectrum of Icelandic geology, from fuming mud pots, geysers, and volcanoes to magma caves, fjords, and expansive glaciers.

Relaxing Spa Retreats Melt away stress in world-famous geothermal pools.

Scandinavian Lore Learn the Vikings' rich history and superstitions, and hear legends of "hidden people"—elves who bewitch the island.

Striking Wildlife Sightings Spot whale pods, puffin colonies, droves of Icelandic horses, and other remarkable species!

at a glance

Venture to the Blue Land Take an overnight flight, arriving by morning to explore the southwest. Enjoy the Viking World museum, famed Blue Lagoon, Leif the Lucky's Bridge, and steaming, primeval landscape of Krýsuvík before settling in for a welcome feast in Reykjavik.

Geology and the Golden Circle Snack on treats from a geothermal bakery, then jump into the nearby thermal hot springs and pools. Explore the eye-popping Kerið Crater Lake and hike behind the magnificent Seljalandsfoss waterfall, along with the majestic Gulfoss waterfall and legendary Geysir.

A Day in the Icelandic Life Hike up an ancient lava channel and enjoy a favorite locals' lunch before delving into the sites of the world's most northerly capital, including Tjörnin Lake and the Old Quarter, Reykjavik Harbor, and the iconic Hallgrímskirkja church.

Zoology by Land and by Sea Embark on a morning journey to sight dolphins, seals and fin, blue, and minke whales. Then take a ride amidst the pastoral valleys and rocky lava fields on horses that were once mounted by Vikings.

Farewhale! Top off your Icelandic adventure among marine giants with a tour of Whales of Iceland or the Reykjavik Art Museum. Pick up that final memento in the downtown Laugavegur district before heading home with a saga of your own.
