White Sand & Turquoise Surf Famously revered as a spice island, Zanzibar is more than cinnamon, vanilla, and ginger; pristine beaches and a glistening waves await you at your luxury beach resort.

at a glance

Between the Stars and the Peak Late night landing at Kilimanjaro International Airport you begin your Tanzania adventure at an cozy bed and breakfast in Arusha before setting out early to see the wildlife as they wake.

“Endless Plains” The word Serengeti comes from a phrase meaning “endless plains,” and you’ll gain a true appreciation for its vastness as you journey through four different national parks and nature preserves.

Selfies in the Serengeti Find the perfect light at dusk for magnificent photos of the crimson and auburn hues as the sun dips below the horizon. You’ll spend your nights under a blanket of stars in 4-star game lodges and bush camps.

High Above the Flora and Fauna Though, certainly, you’ll meet the “big five”—lions, elephants, buffalos, rhinos, and leopards—on your extensive game drives, you’ll gain a Grey Crowned Crane’s-eye-view of them from your private hot air balloon ride.

Placid Splendor Seas of tall grasses, deep crater lakes, and gentle waves of the Indian Ocean lapping on the white sand beaches, Tanzania and Zanzibar’s tranquility will bring you peace.

All Night Party After five days of some of the most marvelous views known to man, you’ll indulge in more than just sundowners—Africa’s cocktail hour—you’ll have two-nights on beaches which are known throughout East Africa for their revelries. With all the sand and Serengeti your soul can handle you’ll be just the ticket before you return to the States.
